

Spotlight On Justice

ASBESTOS IS STILL HARMING WORKERS AND COMMUNITIES

A Massachusetts company and owners have been indicted on 98 counts of violating worker safety and illegal asbestos work in eight towns and cities.

Philadelphia schools, with hundreds of students, closed due to asbestos.

The chlorine industry still heavily uses asbestos and imports it into the U.S. by the hundreds of tons.

Sources: "Mass. asbestos abatement company illegally moved waste, AG says," MassLive, April 5, 2023; "What to know about the ongoing asbestos issues in Philly schools. Four Philadelphia schools have faced closures this year due to damaged asbestos, putting a spotlight on the persistent facilities issues across the school district," Philadelphia Inquirer, March 26, 2023; They inhaled asbestos for decades on the job. Now, workers break their silence," NPR, October 20, 2022.

Center for Justice & Democracy

185 West Broadway
New York, NY 10013
212.431.2882
www.centerjd.org

CENTER FOR JUSTICE
& DEMOCRACY
CJ&D
at NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL