SEASONAL LOW WAGE WORKERS ARE ROUTINELY CHEATED

"From 2005 to 2020, U.S. employers around the country were ordered to pay more than $42.5 million in back wages to 69,000 workers who perform seasonal low-wage jobs on H-2A and H-2B visas. But labor advocates are worried that many more workers are being cheated."

"As guest workers increase, so do concerns about wage cheating,"
