

Spotlight On Justice

GOVERNMENT OVERSIGHT OVER INSURANCE INDUSTRY PRACTICES BARELY EXISTS

Congress prohibited any federal regulation of insurance. It delegated insurance regulation to the states, with no standards and no oversight.

With few exceptions, state insurance departments have neither the authority nor funding to exercise proper control over insurance premiums or coverage.

See more at InsuranceFatCat.com

Center for Justice & Democracy

185 West Broadway
New York, NY 10013
212.431.2882
www.centerjd.org

CENTER FOR JUSTICE
DEMOCRACY
CJ&D
at NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL